Determinate – Plus/CCB Offenders

INTRODUCTION

- Determinate Plus Sentences are those imposed on certain sex offenders (RCW 9.94A.712(3)(4)(5)), effective September 1, 2001. These offenders have the maximum sentence and a minimum term set within the appropriate Sentencing Reform Act (RCW 9.94A) range set by the Court. Offenders may be released from prison after an Indeterminate Sentence Review Board (Board) hearing. Results of a Department of Corrections (DOC) End of Sentence Review, and recommended conditions coming out of the review, are considered by at Board hearing. Offenders released to community custody, hereafter referred to as CCB (Community Custody Board) offenders, have conditions of supervision that are set by the Court and the Board. If the Board determines that the offender is not ready for release to community custody, a new minimum term, not to exceed two years, set by the Board. The CCB fenders who are released to community custody are under DOC supervision until the statutory maximum term of the Determinate Plus sentence.
- The intent of the legislation is to enhance public safety, by putting certain (serious) sex offenders under the jurisdiction of the Board. In this way, there will be a balancing of risk to public safety and offender rehabilitation. The Board may do this by making decisions to keep offenders in prison longer than the initial minimum term set by the Court. In addition, once offenders were released to community custody, the Board may revoke the community custody of offenders who violated the terms of release and supervision.
- The Determinate Plus sentences are imposed for offenders convicted of the following crimes.
- For an offender who is not a persistent offender, generally speaking where the current offense is the offender's first sex offense: Rape 1°; Rape 2°; Rape of Child 1°; Rape of Child 2°; Child Molestation 1° ; Indecent Liberties, With Forcible Compulsion ; Sex Predator Escape.
- For an offender who attempts or completes any of the following with a sexual motivation finding: Murder 1°; Murder 2°; Homicide By Abuse; Kidnap 1°; Kidnap 2°; Assault 1°; Assault 2°;
- Assault of Child 1°; Burglary 1°.
- For an offender who has a prior conviction for an offense listed in RCW 9.94A.030(32)(b) and is convicted of any sex offense that was committed after September 1, 2001."

Denial of release and setting an additional term of up to 24 months must be based upon a finding by the Indeterminate Sentencing Review Board (ISRB) that a preponderance of evidence indicates the inmate is more likely than not to commit sex offenses if released on conditions.

In the event an inmate is found releasable, upon receipt of an acceptable release plan, recommended conditions and an approvable residence, the Board will issue an “Order of Release to Community Custody and Supervision Conditions”.
